

Professional reference for Niq Reefman

Niq is a favourite performer of ours at Maleny Folk Festival.

We've had him a few years in a row because he always brings something fresh and engaging to the festival.

At the latest festival (2025), he mustered a band (the Cosmic Scallywags) from other acts hired at the festival and created a unique show that was a highlight for many of our patrons.

His compositions display an advanced degree of musicianship and storytelling and he writes most of the parts for his band members (Niq showed us one of his multi-coloured charts from the stage).

Off-stage, Niq is frequently engaging with our patrons, and it's not unusual to see him as a guest performer with other acts we've hired.

He's versatile, reliable and it's wonderful to have him on the team.

We trust him to delight our audiences every year and look forward to having him again in whatever form he proposes.

Yours Sincerely

Shez Wright
